Utah-Idaho District

57th Annual Convention of the Utah-Idaho District
of
Key Club International
March 18-20, 2011
Salt Lake City, Utah

Greetings from the 2010-2011 KC UI District Board,

This year's District Board cordially invites you to attend the 57th annual Utah-Idaho District Key Club Convention, which will be held at the Red Lion Hotel in Salt Lake City, Utah. District Convention is an excellent opportunity for all the Key Club members across two states to meet, interact, and exchange ideas in the spirit of service leadership. DCON is your chance to show off all the service leadership activities your club has performed throughout the year as well as learn about all the great service happening at other clubs. Between workshops, keynote speakers, awards, elections, and more, DCON is where Key Club truly comes together.

The theme for District Convention this year is ROMAN INTO SERVICE – so come ready to show your Key Club flair with a bit of toga-wearing taste.

Also, in our transition to a more eco-friendly printing policy, this packet contains only the registration material needed for DCON. For more information on contests, awards, scholarships, and elections material, please visit the district website uikeyclub.wordpress.com, to find the appropriate forms.

Yours Truly,

2010-2011 Utah-Idaho Key Club District Board

FACULTY ADVISOR 2011 CONVENTION CHECK LIST

Advisors: Before you send in the registrations for your Key Clubbers and yourself, please use the check-list below to ensure that nothing has been forgotten. These must be completed without exception for the District Convention

- Each DCON attendee has read the Code of Conduct. (They will be required to sign one upon arrival at the Convention.)
- Each Key Clubber has signed his/her registration form.
- Each Key Clubber's parent or guardian has signed the registration form.
- Each Key Clubber has filled out the medical information sheet, the student's parent/guardian has signed it, and that signature has been notarized.
- All Chaperone forms have been completed.
- A check for costs, figured by the number of attendees times the registration fee (not including lodging or transportation costs); included with the registrations you are sending.
- The rooming list is completed and included with the registration materials. If you need additional students to fill up one or more of your rooms, you have indicated that on the rooming list. If you have an uneven number of students, consider sharing rooms with other schools. (Remember, adults and students may not room together).
- The club members have elected two delegates and two alternates to represent them in the House of Delegates and that form is included with the registration materials.
- One person has been selected to serve on the sergeant-at-arms committee and the form is included with the registration materials.
- Candidates for District Office have completed all forms, inclusive of the service agreement, with all required signatures.
- You and any other adult advisors/chaperones who will be attending Convention have looked at the volunteer form and signed up to help! (Thank you!)

If you have any questions, feel free to contact the District Administrator:

General Information for Advisors and Chaperones

1. Residence required — For liability reasons all registered attendees of the District Convention are required to stay at the convention hotel during the time of the convention. Any person who leaves the convention facility without prior authorization of the District Administrator will be considered to have departed permanently.
2. Chaperones — It is the policy of Key Club International and the Utah-Idaho District of Key Club that any Key Clubber attending the District Convention must be accompanied by an adult chaperone. An adult is a person twenty-six years or older according to this policy.
 - a. No adult may act as a chaperone for more than ten (10) Key Clubbers. A female chaperone must either accompany or be available to female Key Clubbers from each club. A male chaperone must either accompany or be available to male Key Clubbers from each club.
 - b. Chaperones are expected to register for the Convention, stay in the Convention hotel, attend general sessions, caucuses and appropriate meetings and workshops and be responsible for room check at curfew. Chaperones may also be asked to assist with Sergeant-at-Arms responsibilities.
3. Refunds — Should it become necessary for a Key Clubber or adult advisor who has pre-registered for the District Convention to cancel his/her registration, the following refund policy will apply: $50 early/$65 late deposit is non-refundable. Remainder is not due until convention, so the club will need to recalculate cost per person based on cost charts shown under “Registration and Lodging” section.
4. Code of Conduct — Violations of any of the Convention Rules by any member of a Key Club will result in that member being sent home prior to the convention's close, or other disciplinary action as may be deemed appropriate. Anyone dismissed from the convention should understand that they must pay their own expense home and that a letter will be sent to their parents, school principal and sponsoring Kiwanis Club detailing the reason(s) for dismissal.
5. Convention Badges and Identification — Admission to all Convention sessions is by Convention Badge Only. You must wear your badge at all times on the hotel premises. request identification of any person on the premises. Do not wear your badge outside of the hotel.

Advisor & Chaperone Judging Duties

57th ANNUAL CONVENTION – MARCH 18-20, 2011

Faculty Advisors, Kiwanis Advisors, and Chaperones:

Each year the Utah-Idaho District of Key Club International sponsors several contests that challenge the students' skills and knowledge of service. It is very important to the students that those contests be judged fairly and impartially. We depend on your willingness to serve in a number of capacities during the District Convention, including serving as chaperones during the Saturday evening dance.

Your help is needed in one of the following capacities. Please indicate which of these activities in which you would like to participate as a judge.

- Impromptu Essay Contest
- Scrapbook Contest
- Talent Contest
- Oratorical Contest
- Chaperone the Saturday Dance
- Talent Contest (Finals)

Please know that your efforts and service on behalf of the students is very much appreciated.

Sergeant-at-Arms Registration

1. Each club is to select one person to serve on the Sergeant-at-Arms Committee.
2. The members of the Committee shall act on the direction of the Chairperson of the Committee and the District Administrator.
3. It will be the duty of this committee to keep order at all sessions of the convention. The committee will monitor all entrances for all meetings. Everyone in attendance must have a convention badge.
4. Members of the committee will be assigned to one or more of the following responsibilities:
 - a. Stand at the entrance to the room in which the general sessions are held.
 - b. Be assigned to certain floors of the hotel to enforce curfew.
 - c. Be assigned to the House of Delegates.
5. All members of the Committee will be issued a ribbon to designate that they are a member of the Sergeant-At-Arms Committee.
6. This committee should not consider itself a police force, but as a service committee to provide for a successful convention and for the protection of those attending the convention. Committee members should, at all times, remain courteous and help direct attendees as well as possible. The Sergeant-At-Arms ribbon is not a license to act as one pleases, nor should it be used as an excuse to circumvent regulations. All members of the committee are obligated to abide by the same regulations established for all Key Club members.
