Important note:

If you're wearing a beach-themed outfit for the dance, make sure it's appropriate. That means no bikinis! People wearing inappropriate costumes will be asked to leave to go change.

DRESS FOR SUCCESS

The official Key Club International dress code will be in effect during all official meetings of the convention as noted in the convention program. All participants are expected to abide by the dress requirements.

BUSINESS PROFESSIONAL

Dress shirts, slacks, neckties, sport or suit coats and dress shoes for boys, and dresses or suits, skirts, slacks and blouses and dress shoes for girls. Pack professional attire to wear for both rounds of House of Delegates, caucusing, and opening, closing and recognition sessions. Three business-professional outfits are suggested.

BUSINESS CASUAL

Slacks, collared shirts and non-athletic shoes for boys, and slacks, skirts, blouses or collared shirts and non-athletic shoes for girls. For forums, workshops, Eliminate Session, Growth Session and the Service Fair, wear your business-casual attire. Three business-casual outfits are suggested.

CASUAL

Shorts or jeans, collared shirts, sweatshirts or approved T-shirts (see below) and casual footwear, such as athletic shoes or sandals, are appropriate for boys, and shorts, skirts, skorts or jeans, collared shirts, sweatshirts or approved T-shirts (see below) and casual footwear, such as athletic shoes or sandals, for girls. Dances and free times are the right times to wear your casual attire. Four casual outfits are suggested.

At no time will any clothing with inappropriate language or graphics be allowed. Any shirts, shorts or skirts deemed to be of inappropriate length will not be allowed. Remember to wear your name badge for all convention events.

Total number of outfits does not include specific attire needed if traveling with a district tour.
