

House of Delegates

1. Upon arriving at the House of Delegates each delegate will give their pass to one of the officials at the door. They will be given an official Utah-Idaho District Key Club District ballot, which will contain the names of all candidates running for District Offices.
2. A clearly demarked section of the meeting space may be set-aside for visitors, who may not participate in any way in the deliberations of the House of Delegates.
3. Voting will take place by written ballot. No delegate will be allowed to leave the House of Delegates until the meeting has adjourned, except for extenuating circumstances and that with the expressed permission of the chair. Once the ballots have been cast they will be given to the International Trustee in attendance at the Convention.
4. A simple majority of votes cast for each office is required for election.
5. Matters regarding persons running for International office, or others matters concerning Key Club International may be heard and voted upon by voice vote, a simple majority being required for passage.
6. Ballots will be counted by Committee composed of the Key Club International Trustee in attendance at the Convention, the Governor and Governor-elect of the Utah-Idaho District of Kiwanis International, and the current Governor of the Utah-Idaho District of Key Club International.
7. Announcement of elections shall take place before adjournment of the Convention.
8. Ballots shall be sealed and given to the District Administrator, who shall see that they are kept confidentially for one year.
